

OCTOBER 2008 EDITION

Welcome to another issue of the BCAP Newsletter, a brief newsletter of happenings at BCAP and building energy code progress around the nation. In this issue read about:

- Updated BCAP Commercial State Code Status Map
- Energy Code Champion, Mark Halverson
- Subscribe to the BCAP Code News RSS Feed
- Code News

As always, we appreciate the support and collaboration of our many friends and allies. We are looking forward to continued collaboration with you to improve the energy efficiency of our built environment.

Cheers! – the BCAP Staff

UPDATED BCAP COMMERCIAL STATE CODE STATUS MAP

BCAP is excited to unveil the new and improved version of its commercial state code status map. Aside from the color changes, the map now includes a new level of information, with lighter colors indicating states that have adopted a new code which is not yet effective.

You can view the new map on the BCAP website and click on individual states to view the most up-to-date, detailed code status information on building energy codes. The residential map will be updated as well as we get closer to the release of the 2009 IECC.

ENERGY CODE CHAMPION

The Building Code Assistance Project announces Mark Halverson, with Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, as our selection for ENERGY CODE CHAMPION! Read more...

Each quarter, BCAP will be recognizing a new Energy Code Champion. This will be a person who has been working hard behind the scenes to advocate for improving building energy codes. If you have someone you would like to nominate, or if you would like to tell us about the wonderful work you are doing, please write us at kwilllock@ase.org.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE BCAP CODE NEWS RSS FEED

To stay up-to-date on all the latest news from the building codes community, subscribe now to the BCAP Code News RSS Feed at <http://www.bcap-energy.org/news/feed>. An RSS, or Really Simple Syndication Feed, allows you to view frequently updated content published by a website. This tool highlights the most recent code news for you even if you do not regularly check the BCAP site (even though we encourage you to do so!).

For Mozilla Firefox users, follow the link <http://www.bcap-energy.org/news/feed>. Choose the application to view the feed (Live Bookmarks is the easiest, but you can also add the feed to your Google or Yahoo home page) and click "Subscribe Now". An orange icon titled "Code News" should appear on your Live Bookmarks toolbar underneath the URL web address toolbar. Clicking the icon will reveal a dropdown box with the five most recent BCAP Code News updates. Follow one to navigate to the appropriate page on the BCAP website and further surf Code News.

For Internet Explorer 7 users, follow the link <http://www.bcap-energy.org/news/feed>. Click "Subscribe to this feed". In the Favorites toolbar (accessed by the star icon on the IE toolbar at left), an orange icon titled "Code News" should appear. To create a quick launch live bookmark, in IE select the View menu...Toolbars...and unselect Lock the Toolbars. A section marked "Links" should appear in one of the toolbars. Drag the vertical line next to it to expand the Links toolbar. In the URL address browser, highlight the entire URL for the news feed, click and hold the icon, and drag it into the newly expanded Links toolbar. Finally, select the View menu...Toolbars...and reselect Lock the Toolbars.

And as always, please check out the rest of the BCAP website at <http://www.bcap-energy.org/> for news, events, state code status information, code adoption maps, our Policy Action Tool, and more!
